USES, BUILDINGS, WORKS, SUBDIVISIONS AND DEMOLITION NOT REQUIRING A PERMIT

62.01 Uses not requiring a permit

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the use of land does not apply to:

- The use of land in a road if the use is associated with the use of adjoining land and is authorised by the Council under a local law.
- The use of land in a road to trade from a stall, stand, motor vehicle, trailer, barrow or other similar device if the use is authorised by the Council under a local law.
- The use of land for wind measurement by an anemometer for 3 years or less.
- The use of land for Geothermal energy exploration carried out in accordance with the Geothermal Energy Resources Act 2005.
- The use of land associated with geothermal extraction if the conditions of Clause 52.08-4 are met.

62.02 Buildings and works

Clauses 62.02-1 and 62.02-2 set out exemptions from permit requirements in this scheme relating to the construction of a building or the construction or carrying out of works. These exemptions do not apply to the removal, destruction or lopping of trees and the removal of vegetation. Exemptions for vegetation removal are set out in Clause 62.02-3.

62.02-1 Buildings and works not requiring a permit

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the construction of a building or the construction or carrying out of works does not apply to:

- Buildings or works which provide for fire protection under relevant legislation.
- Emergency works undertaken by, or on behalf of, a municipality, public authority or utility service provider in the exercise of any power conferred on them under any Act.
- Maintenance works carried out by a municipality or public authority to prevent or alleviate flood damage.
- An anemometer located on a site for 3 years or less.
- Buildings and works associated with a use on adjoining land or street trading if authorised under a local law.
- Gardening.
- Buildings and works associated with a minor utility installation.
- Buildings or works which are a modification necessary to comply with a direction under the Dangerous Goods Act 1985 or the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 or a Waste Discharge Licence, Works Approval or Pollution Abatement Notice under the Environment Protection Act 1970.
- Buildings and works associated with a telecommunications facility if the requirements of Clause 52.19 are met.
- Buildings and works associated with a dam if a licence is required to construct the dam or to take and use water from the dam under the Water Act 1989.
- Buildings and works associated with a carnival or circus if the requirements of A ‘Good Neighbour’ Code of Practice for a Circus or Carnival, October 1997 are met.

- A temporary shed or temporary structure for construction purposes, or a temporary portable land sales office located on the land for sale.

- A children’s cubbyhouse.

- A television antenna (but not a satellite dish).

- External lighting normal to a dwelling.

- Buildings and works associated with geothermal energy exploration carried out in accordance with the Geothermal Energy Resources Act 2005.

62.02-2 Buildings and works not requiring a permit unless specifically required by the planning scheme

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the construction of a building or the construction or carrying out of works does not apply to:

- A fence.

- A sign.

- Roadworks.

- Street furniture including post boxes, telephone booths, fire hydrants, bus shelters, art work, shade sails and traffic control devices.

- Park furniture including seating, tables, shelters, rubbish bins, playground equipment, art work, barbeques, shade sails and drinking fountains.

- Oil pipelines.

- Buildings and works associated with a dependent person’s unit.

- Buildings and works associated with mineral exploration.

- Buildings and works associated with mining if the conditions of Clause 52.08-2 are met.

- Buildings and works associated with search for stone. This does not apply to costeanning and bulk sampling.

- The internal rearrangement of a building or works provided the gross floor area of the building, or the size of the works, is not increased and the number of dwellings is not increased.

- Repairs and routine maintenance to an existing building or works.

- Domestic services normal to a dwelling.

- A domestic rainwater tank with a capacity of not more than 4500 litres.

- Any works necessary to prevent soil erosion, or to ensure soil conservation or reclamation.

- Buildings and works associated with geothermal extraction if the conditions of Clause 52.08-4 are met.

This does not apply if a permit is specifically required for any of these matters.
Vegetation removal

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the construction or carrying out of works does not apply to the removal, destruction or lopping of trees and the removal of vegetation.

This does not apply if a permit is specifically required to remove, destroy or lop trees or to remove vegetation.

Events on public land

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the use of land or the construction of a building or the construction or carrying out of works does not apply to:

- an event on public land; or
- temporary buildings or works required for the event;

where that event has been authorised by the public land manager or by the council under a local law.

An event includes land used to provide temporary cultural or community activities and entertainment such as a concert, festival or exhibition.

This does not apply to public land where a local provision of this scheme specifically regulates an event for a particular site.

Subdivisions not requiring a permit

Any requirement in this scheme relating to the subdivision of land does not apply to:

- A subdivision by an authority acquiring the land which does not create an additional lot.
- A subdivision by a public authority or utility service provider which does not create an additional lot other than for the sole purpose of a minor utility installation. This does not apply if a permit is required to subdivide land under any overlay.
- A subdivision by an authority acquiring the land which creates additional lots if the additional lots are severed parcels of land without legal access to an existing road and the additional lots are retained by the acquiring authority or sold to an abutting land owner on the condition that the lot be consolidated with abutting land.
- A subdivision which realigns the common boundary between two lots if all the land is in one urban zone and any of the following apply:
  - Any lot that is reduced in area meets the minimum lot area and minimum dimensions (if any) specified for the zone. This does not apply if the area of the smaller lot is limited by a provision of this scheme, or by a condition of a planning permit.
  - There is no minimum lot area specified for the zone, the area of the smaller lot is more than 230 square metres, and the area of either lot is reduced by less than 30 square metres.
  - There is no minimum lot area specified for the zone, the area of the smaller lot is 230 square metres or less, and the area of either lot is reduced by less than 5 percent or by less than 30 square metres, whichever is lesser.
  - The new boundary coincides with a boundary fence that is more than five years old. This does not apply if all the land is in one ownership.
- A subdivision which realigns the common boundary between two lots if all the land is in one non-urban zone, the re-subdivision does not allow the number of dwellings the whole of the land could be used for under this scheme to increase, and any of the following apply:
• Any lot that is reduced in area meets the minimum lot area and minimum dimensions (if any) specified for the zone. This does not apply if the area of the smaller lot is limited by a provision of this scheme, or by a condition of a planning permit.

• There is no minimum lot area specified for the zone, and no part of the boundary is moved more than 1 metre. This does not apply if the area of the smaller lot would be less than the area specified by a condition of a planning permit.

• There is no minimum lot area specified for the zone, the new boundary coincides with the location of a fence that is more than 5 years old, and no part of the boundary is moved more than 3 metres.

Demolition

A permit is not required for the demolition or removal of a building or works unless a permit is specifically required for demolition or removal.
