Buildings and works

Permit requirement
A permit is not required to construct a building or construct or carry out works that is generally in accordance with an approved development plan for the land.
A permit must not be granted to construct a building or construct or carry out works until a development plan has been approved to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

A permit may be granted to construct a building or construct or carry out works associated with existing facilities prior to a development plan being approved.

The development plan may consist of plans or other documents and may, with the agreement of the responsible authority, be prepared and implemented in stages.

The development plan must describe:

- The land to which the plan applies.

- The proposed use and development of each part of the land, including the location of new facilities such as the drag strip, skid pan, formalised and centralised car parking, toilet facilities, food premises and viewing areas.

- Any proposed design features or noise attenuation measures to minimise amenity impacts on nearby dwellings.

- Details of proposed landscaping, including the retention of existing vegetation and the provision of a landscape buffer around the perimeter of the land.

The development plan may be amended to the satisfaction of the responsible authority.

Exemption from notice and review

An application to construct a building or construct or carry out works is exempt from the notice requirements of Section 52(1)(a), (b) and (d), the decision requirements of Section 64(1), (2) and
(3) and the review rights of Section 82(1) of the Act.
