The Albury Wodonga region has been subject to a plethora of studies and strategies. The direction and policies that form part of this planning scheme have been influenced by these documents. The following documents are of particular relevance:

- Albury Wodonga Regional Planning Strategy
  (Albury Wodonga Region Planning Committee 1991)
- Sustainability Your Future in Balance
  (Albury Wodonga Region Planning Committee)
- Healthy Lifestyles in a Health Community
  An integrated approach to Municipal Health Planning 1997
- Albury Wodonga the Gateway to Growth
  (Macroplan 1998)
- Lake Hume Development Strategy
  (Discussion paper 1994)
- Leneva Structure Plan
  (EDAW 1998)
- North East Regional River Health Strategy
  (North East Catchment Management Authority 2006)
- North East Regional Catchment Strategy
  (North East Catchment Management Authority 2004)
- City of Wodonga Corporate Plan 2006-10
  (City of Wodonga 2006)
- Review of Rural Living Opportunities
  (Albury Wodonga Regional Planning Committee March 1993)
- Bonegilla Structure Plan, City of Wodonga, July 2003.
- Gateway Island Master-Plan Review, Coomes Consulting Group, August 2002
- Rural City of Wodonga Statement of Policy in Respect to Developer Contributions, 1994.